THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Charles Townſhend and Edward Walpole, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Aſhburnham, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AMidſt the general Congratulations of your Majeſty's loyal and obedient Subjects, on your ſafe and happy Return to this Kingdom, Duty and Inclination oblige us to bear a Part, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that none of your faithful Subjects can, with ſincerer or greater Joy than your loyal and ancient Corporation of Great Yarmouth, addreſs your Majeſty upon this happy Event; an Event, the Importance of which, if capable of any Addition, receives its full Completion by reſtoring at the ſame Time our King and Peace to Great Britain.

Happy is your Majeſty, equally happy your Subjects, in the Succeſs of your Endeavours for an honourable Peace, the Stability and Perpetuity of which, we are fully perſuaded are ſo well guarded, as not to be rendered ineffectual by the ſiniſter Inſinuations or Arts of thoſe who delight in War.

In you, great Sir, an injur'd Prince and betrayed States have found an Aſſertor of their Rights, and perſecuted Liberty a generous Guardian.

Give us Leave, Sir, to take this Opportunity of teſtifying our inviolable and unfeign'd Affection to your ſacred Perſon, and our firm Attachment to the Preſervation of the Proteſtant Succeſſion to the Crown of Great Britain in your Royal Houſe, which, next under Providence, we are by happy Experience convinced, is at preſent the only Bulwark of our religious and civil Rights, and will be the moſt certain Method of conveying down thoſe invaluable Bleſſings to our lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our common Seal at the Guild-hall in the ſaid Burgh, this 25th Day of February, in the twenty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's happy and glorious Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Guild or Brotherhood of Maſters and Pilots, Seamen of the Trinity Houſe of Kingſton upon Hull, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Thomas Carter, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the Town of Kingſton upon Hull, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Aſhburnham, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addrſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Guild or Brotherhood of Maſters and Pilots, Seamen of the Trinity Houſe of Kingſton upon Hull.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO permit us, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Guild or Brotherhood of Maſters and Pilots, Seamen of the Trinity Houſe of Hull, to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Arrival and Return to your Dominions of Great Britain; and with Hearts full full of Joy to return you our unfeigned Thanks for the Happineſs this Nation now enjoys by the preſent Peace, a ſalutary Work conducted and compleated by your Sacred Majeſty, out of your paternal Care for the Good of your People, whereby a Period is put to the Calamities of War, and that ineſtimable Bleſſing of Free Maritime Trade and Commerce reſtored to all your Majeſty's Subjects.

May your Majeſty's Reign over us be long and happy; and may there never want a Prince of your illuſtrious Houſe to ſit upon the Throne of Great Britain, to govern the happy free Subjects and grateful People of this Iſle.

Given under our common Seal the 25th Day of February, 1748.

By the Lords Juſtices General and General Governors of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

Turin, March 1, N. S. The Marquiſs de Breille returned hither on the 26th paſt, having left Nice on the 22d, immediately after Marſhal de Belleiſle's Departure from thence. This Court has ſince received Letters from Count la Trinité, by which they are informed, that on his Arrival at Nice on Wedneſday laſt, the French Garriſon had immediately, on the Approach of his Sardinian Majeſty's Troops, given up the Town, and marched out of it towards the Var, which they paſſed the ſame Day. By this the Evacuations in theſe Parts are fully compleated to the Satisfaction of all Parties. The Infant Don Philip has begun his Journey towards his States in Italy, and paſſed by Sea from Antibes to Menthon, and has ſince continued his Journey by Land through the Riviera di Ponente to Genoa. To-morrow he is to paſs by Tortona and Voghera, where he will be complimented in his Sardinian Majeſty's Name by the Governor of the former Place, and by the Officer who commands the Body of Cavalry quartered at Voghera, who are both directed to pay him all the Honours due to his Birth and his Rank in his Paſſage through that Part of his Sardinian Majeſty's States to Placentia.

Turin, March 8, N. S. The Marqueſs de St. Germain is to go Ambaſſador to the Court of France; M. Oſſorio with the like Character to that of Spain; and Count Perron, now at Dreſden, as Envoy Extraordinary to that of Great Britain. The Infant Don Philip paſſed by Tortona and Voghera, in his Way to Placentia, on the 2d Inſtant, and will arrive at Parma this Evening, or To-morrow. The 700 French Troops which were left at Genoa, have been ſhipped and ſent over to Corſica.

Hague, March 14, N. S. A Proclamation was publiſhed Yeſterday, in the Name of the Prince Stadtholder and of the High Court of Juſtice of this Province, to prohibit Baſſet, Pharao, Quinze, and all other Games of Hazard, under very ſevere Penalties for the Offenders. By the laſt Letters from Frieſland we hear, that great Diſorders have been again committed in one of the Diſtricts of that Province, on account of the new Regulations for levying the Taxes; and that it had been found neceſſary to ſend againſt the Rioters ſeveral Detachments of Horſe and Foot to diſperſe them and bring them to Reaſon. M. Charles Bentinck arrived here two Days ago from Overyſſel.
